

METRA BOULOT DODO

JUST A STEP AWAY

ROYAL ARCADE (ABOVE TINFISH SHOES)
7TH & 8TH DECEMBER 2013 @ 4PM - 8PM

JUST A STEP AWAY

Just a Step Away is a collaboration between Leicester University and Curve associate artists, METRO-BOULOT-DODO.

Just a Step Away uses projected image and audio to tell stories around the rise, fall and reinvention of the boot and shoe industry in Leicester.

Through the exploration of archives held at Leicester University, MACE and Leicester's Record Office, METRO-BOULOT-DODO have created 6 short films. These films will be projected onto the windows of Leicester's Royal Arcade, just above Tin Fish Shoes, on Saturday 7th and Sunday 8th December from 4pm – 8pm.

Come along to catch a glimpse of Leicester's industrial heritage and discover why the boot and shoe industry is still thriving in Leicester today.

The films created will be hosted on the Story of Leicester website: www.leicester.gov.uk/storyofleicester

Research materials from:

David Wilson Library, University of Leicester. The Record Office for Leicestershire, Leicester and Rutland (Leicestershire County Council). Media Archive for Central England (MACE). BBC Radio Leicester. East Midlands Oral History Archive. My Leicestershire Digital Archive, University of Leicester. De Montfort University, School of Fashion and Textiles. Wendy Freer and Leicestershire Industrial History Society

Every effort has been made to ensure materials with copyright restrictions have been cleared for use in this project. Please direct any enquiries to: info@metro-boulot-dodo.com

For more information on MBD projects visit:
www.metro-boulot-dodo.com

